Vista Tower Nears Completion

By Charles Herbst

Belvidere native Jeanne Gang is riding high. 1,198 feet high. That's the height of the new Vista Tower, the supertall skyscraper, which is now the third tallest building in Chicago, and the tallest in the world by a woman architect. The Vista Tower, designed by Jeanne Gang, will accept its first condominium residents at the end of this month or at the beginning of November.

Also designed by Gang, the Beloit College Powerhouse--a multipurpose student center--is almost finished, and the Global Terminal at O'Hare International Airport is scheduled to begin construction later this year.

At 375 East Wacker Drive, Vista Tower is part of the Lakeshore East neighborhood, an entirely new, highrise community on the south bank of the Chicago River. The area is just east of Illinois Center and north of Maggie Daley Park. Lakeshore East is the second-wealthiest neighborhood in Chicago.

Vista Tower is a very complex building that has taken about four years to build. It is 101 stories (including 5 stories below Wacker Drive), and has two streets on different levels running through it. It consists of 3 staggered towers of varying heights and a shorter, fourth section at ground level. Most of the building consists of about 400 condominiums that are located above a 5-star hotel with 190 rooms. A parking garage is on the lower levels. The streets in this area have as many as 3 different levels, and both pedestrian and vehicular access can be confusing.

The Vista Tower site connects Lakeshore East with Wacker Drive and the Chicago Riverwalk. The building will also have an entrance to the Pedway, the system of underground walkways that connect Illinois Center, Grant Park, many Loop buildings, Metra trains and CTA subways. It is near the mouth of the Chicago River; 1,000 feet from the site where Chicago was first settled by Jean Baptiste DuSable; and 600 feet from the iconic, 86-story Aqua Tower, also designed by Gang.

Vista Tower, as seen from Streeterville

This spot was the site of the infamous Lake Shore Drive S-curve, known for its sharp turns and many accidents. In the mid-1980s, Lake Shore Drive was realigned eastward, with a softer curve. At that time, about 35 years ago, Lakeshore East was an abandoned Illinois Central Railroad yard.

Vista tower is a smart-looking addition to the Chicago Heading skyline. north on Lake Shore Drive from the Field Museum, Vista Tower dramatically looms directly in front of the observer. Because of the three graduated-height towers, the building is initially reminiscent of Willis (nee: Sears) Tower, built 50 years ago.

The towers of the building consist of stacked frustums. A frustum is a horizontal slice of a pyramid. Each frustum is about 12 stories high. The frustums give each tower a wavy appearance. The size of the various floors in each tower varies from 80 to 90 feet square. To accommodate the differing floor sizes, the perimeter columns are staggered a few inches between floors. The extrior walls of each floor are vertical, but the variation in floorplate size creates the impression of undulation

The frustum design initially yielded several snarky critiques at Skyscraper Page and other online forums. Several made comparisons to the Taipei 101 tower in Taiwan. Another suggested that Studio Gang must have ordered a late-night supper from a Chinese takeaway and stacked the food boxes. As the plans were refined, the design evolved greatly. Most of the critics do seem mollified by the final design and appearance of the finished product.

The building is clad in various shades of blue glass that form a checkerboard design. Thinner floors of each tower have darker glass and have different thermal performance to account for the variation in the size of the floorplates. Compared to other supertalls, the building is relatively small and slender. On the upper floors, the tower measures only 81 by 81 feet. The building height-to-core ratio is 40 to 1. To compare, an average tower is about 12 to 1.

Vista Tower presented several, unique engineering challenges. This building consists of 3 towers with the middle tower perched over a double-deck boulevard, Field Drive. Concrete cores were constructed in the end towers and joined with a 508-foot tall reinforced concrete spine running from the 15th through the 51st Floor. Because the site is marshy fill, deep piers extend about 115 feet below grade and are drilled into 6 feet of bedrock.

Wind becomes a major consideration when a building is taller than 50 stories, particularly in one as slender as Vista Tower. Unchecked, it can cause a tower to sway, causing swinging chandeliers, waves in toilet bowls and motion sickness for its inhabitants. Several steps were taken at Vista Tower to ameliorate this problem. In addition to the concrete core system, there is a double-height, blow-through, 83rd floor. The blow-through floor allows the wind to blow through, greatly reducing the force exerted on the tower. This is the first blow-through floor in Chicago.

There are six sloshing dampers at the top, containing 400,000 gallons of water. These dampers counteract the force of the wind by allowing water in the tanks to slosh in the opposite direction and provide stability. Two are on the blowthrough floor and four more are on the 97th and 99th floors.

A project of this size is very much a partnership between various entitles. The tower was designed by Studio Gang and the architect of record

Rep. Sosnowski Statement on Region 1 COVID-19 Mitigation

State Representative Joe Sosnowski (R-Rockford) reacted to the news that Region 1 will be placed under COVID-19 mitigation measures effective Saturday, October 3 following the latest update from the Illinois Department of Public Health that the region's 7-day rolling positivity rate stands at 8.3%:

"It's unfortunate that the Pritzker Administration and the state health department are selectively shutting down several types of businesses without any evidence that they're responsible for the spread of COVID-19. More troubling is how the administration is ignoring and/or constantly changing their mitigation measures. The department had a tiered system that reduced capacity in the first tier, but now there are apparently no tiers and the administration just suspends indoor dining and closes bars. Stateline area families, employers and workers deserve better than the administration's haphazard approach to mitigation that arbitrarily picks winners and losers with people's livelihoods."

Open bars in Wisconsin are 10 miles north, but Boone County bars and restaurants are going back to limited service. This is not fair. We need a President that takes a responsible, unified approach to public health, and all of us need to do our part.

Rep. Keicher Statement on Region 1 COVID-19 Mitigation

State Representative Jeff Keicher (R-Sycamore) reacted today to Governor Pritzker's announcement regarding mitigations placed on Health Region 1 following more than three consecutive days of a COVID-19 positivity rate above 8%.

The Illinois Department of Public Health (IDPH) on Monday announced the rate of positive test results had reached 8 percent in Region 1, which extends from DeKalb and Boone counties west to the Iowa border. A region that has three consecutive days of positivity rates above 8 percent is subject to increased mitigations that include limited capacity indoors and restrictions for restaurants and bars.

"These mitigations are both a setback and a wake-up call that we're all in this together when it comes to keeping each other healthy and keeping our economy open," Rep. Keicher said. "DeKalb County has a lower positivity rate, below the warning level, than several other counties in our region. While that is a good thing, it is frustrating that our local communities' best efforts are not enough to avoid mitigation. Higher rates among our neighbors, particularly in Winnebago, Boone and Lee Counties are pulling us down. We should have greater independence at the county level to respond with mitigation efforts locally to trends like this."

"My immediate concern is not only for people to remain safe from COVID but also for the workers who are directly impacted by mitigation measures. Their ability to provide for their families is being threatened through no fault of their own. This will once again put front and center the Governor's struggles to address the failure of the department of employment security to process unemployment claims. Our office remains available to help local families in need navigate these issues."

As of Tuesday, according to IDPH, among the nine counties in Region 1, Boone County's seven-day rolling positivity rate is 10.7 percent, Carroll County's is 3.8 percent, DeKalb's is 6.9, Jo Daviess' is 9.1, Lee's is 9.9, Ogle's is 6.9, Stephenson's is 5.2, Whiteside's is 6.4 and Winnebago's is 8.7.

A Sour Year for Harvard Milk Days

Because of Covid-19, most of the Harvard Milk Days celebration will not happen this year.

Originally scheduled for early June, the committee hoped that it could hold the 79th annual celebration in October. Although the Queen scholarship competition, golf outing and the fireworks display have already been held, the remaining activities this year are canceled.

Harvard Milk Days is a major contributor to the well being of Harvard. Considering the health and welfare of the community, the committee realized it would not be safe to proceed.

The Boone County Journal salutes and supports the committee, who made a difficult, but right decision.

GOP Leader Says House Speaker Abused Office, Public Trust

By Sarah Mansur Capitol News Illinois

Illinois House Republicans on a special committee investigating House Speaker Michael Madigan's role in a bribery scheme involving Commonwealth Edison sought to tie the longtime leader directly to the $1.3 million in payments over nearly a decade made by the utility giant to his associates.

House Republicans also pressed for issuing subpoenas to multiple potential witnesses, including Madigan, as well as former ComEd CEO Anne Pramaggiore, and former ComEd lobbyist Michael McClain.

When Rep. Deanne Mazzochi, R-Elmhurst, made a motion to vote on whether the committee should issue subpoenas, the committee's chairman, Rep. Emanuel "Chris" Welch, D-Hillside, said the motion was "out of order," and did not allow the vote, citing his discretion as chairman.

House rules state a special investigative committee "may, in the discretion of the Chairperson, administer oaths and compel by subpoena...any person to appear and give testimony as a witness or produce papers, documents, or other materials relevant to the charge or charges."

Welch also called the issuance of subpoenas premature.

"You're asking this committee to vote to approve subpoenas that we haven't seen, and we haven't discussed," Welch said.

However, both sides agreed that the committee would benefit from the testimony of Fidel Marquez, former senior vice president of governmental and external affairs at ComEd.

is bKL Architecture. The developer is Magellan Development Group, who developed much of Lakeshore East, including Aqua. McHugh Construction is the General Contractor. The hotelier, Dalian Wanda Group, early on took a 90 percent ownership interest in the Vista Tower project. Wanda is a Chinese conglomerate founded by Wang Jianlin, one of the richest men in China. The company has substantial holdings in China and abroad, it is known as the largest owner of shopping centers in China, and the largest owner of movie theatres in the world. It also has investments in many other industries, including a premier line of hotels. The Wanda Vista Hotel was to be the first US Wanda Hotel, which provides additional value and cachet for purchasers of the condominium residences.

Recently, the Chinese Government has required large enterprises to divest themselves of real estate holdings outside China, particularly those with debt financing. As a result, Wanda Group has sold its stake back to Magellan this summer for $270 million. This will greatly reduce Wanda Group's debt. The fate of the hotel is unclear, but it is assumed that another premier hotel group will occupy the site. Speculation is that the St. Regis and Mandarin Oriental hotels would be likely candidates to open a 5-star hotel at the site.

At least one of the Sky 360 penthouse floor condominium buyers is suing to rescind the sales contract. Steve Vogel, a recreational boating entrepreneur, is claiming that Magellan misrepresented Wanda's involvement in the project after Magellan knew of Wanda's intended withdrawal from the venture.

Interestingly, the hotel situation parallels the circumstances when Aqua Tower opened. Twelve years ago, in 2008, Strategic Hotels & Resorts terminated its contract to develop a hotel in Aqua Tower, citing economic conditions. Three years later, a Radisson Blu hotel was opened at Aqua.

So, what is it like to have your own private terrace, 900 feet above Lake Michigan?

Condos begin above the hotel on the 13th floor. One-bedroom units on those floors start at about $1 million. The building is divided into four tiers, River, Park, Lake and Sky 360 Residences, with both ascending floor numbers and affluence. 1-4-bedroom units are available in the River, Park, and Lake levels, which top out at the 70th floor. From the 71st floor upward, Sky 360 residents will have exclusive occupancy of an entire floor, each of which will have a customizable floor plan. Those units are priced at about $10 million. A double floor sold for the bargain price of $18 million.

All residents will have the use of the hotel's fitness center and hotel amenities on the 10th and 11th floors--when the hotel ultimately opens. These facilities include the day spa, the indoor pool, sky bar and fine dining room. In addition, residents have exclusive use of additional amenities on the 47th floor. These include an outdoor pool and terrace, lounges, another fitness center, theater, playroom, wine storage and tasting, a

In our 25th year publishing The Boone County Journal October 2, 2020 reneur, is claiming that Magellan misrepregame room and demonstration kitchen.

The units themselves have 9-foot-4-inch ceilings and wide plank wood flooring throughout. Walk in closets, laundry rooms and well-appointed kitchens and baths are standard. The units range in size from 1,101 to 5,215 square feet.

Of course, the Sky 360 Residences from the 71st through 93rd floors are the talk of the town. The building offers a unique opportunity to have a full floor with a terrace at this height in the middle of Downtown Chicago. The ceilings on these floors rise to 11 feet 4 inches. Gas fireplaces and a balcony gas line are provided. There are motorized window treatments and a heated floor in the master bath.

The kitchen has Gaggenau appliances including a wall oven, speed oven, and five-burner gas cooktop. There is also a steam oven, in-counter steamer, and warming drawer. Natural quartz and stone countertops are provided. A built-in tower refrigerator, freezer, coffee machine, dishwasher and wine cooler are standard. Contemporary Snaidero cabinetry has motorized upper cabinets.

Although the plans for the Sky 360 Residences are a "blank canvas," a sample plan for the 81st floor suggests a living room facing Lake Michigan, with space for a full grand piano. The plan helpfully notes the views of sunrises over the lake, sunsets over the Chicago Skyline, view spots for Navy Pier fireworks, the Air and Water Show, Millennium Park and Buckingham Fountain. In short, the kind of digs one expects when plunking down 8 figures for a pad.

About an hour before the committee hearing began, Marquez pleaded guilty to one count of bribery for his role in the ComEd patronage scheme.

Welch acknowledged the guilty plea before the committee hearing ended, adding that the committee would be in touch with Marquez's attorney "to determine what our next steps should be."

Tuesday's hearing kicked off with a clash between Welch and House Minority Leader Jim Durkin, R-Western Springs, who initiated the disciplinary process under House rules.

Welch argued that Durkin could not make an opening statement since he is not a committee member and because he signed a petition accusing Madigan of wrongdoing.

Welch ultimately allowed Durkin to give an opening statement, but not to question the witness.

In his opening statement, Durkin said the evidence will establish that Madigan engaged in "conduct unbecoming to a legislator or which constitutes a breach of public trust."

"The evidence will be direct, strong and convincing," Durkin said. "And we'll meet the burden of proof for this committee – that is whether reasonable grounds exist to authorize charges."

Mazzochi questioned ComEd Executive Vice President of Compliance and Audit David Glockner – the only witness at the five-hour hearing – to establish Madigan's firsthand knowledge of a scheme from 2011 to 2019 seeking to "influence and reward" the House Speaker for legislation that would provide monetary benefits of more than $150 million to the utility.

In July, as part of a deferred prosecution agreement with the U.S. Attorney's Office in Chicago, ComEd admitted it arranged for associates of Madigan "to obtain jobs, vendor subcontracts, and monetary payments associated with those jobs and subcontracts from ComEd, even in instances where certain political allies and workers performed little or no work that they were purportedly hired to perform for ComEd."

Madigan has not been charged with any crime and denies wrongdoing.

Mazzochi asked Glockner about a section in the DPA that stated that "Consultant 1," identified as former City Club of Chicago President Jay Doherty, "had 'every reason to believe' that Individual A had spoken to Public Official A about the retention of Public Official A's associates."

"Is it reasonable to infer that Mr. Madigan had knowledge of the scheme from that, from ComEd's perspective?" Mazzochi asked.

Glockner said he wasn't in a position to comment on that inquiry.

"ComEd has acknowledged repeatedly through the agreement that it believed or intended to influence the speaker through its conduct. Whether it in fact ... influenced the speaker, whether the speaker was aware of its intent to influence – those are questions that I'm not in a position to comment on," Glockner said.

Democrats on the special investigative committee – including Welch, Reps. Elizabeth Hernandez of Cicero, and Natalie Manley of Joliet – pushed back on the Republicans' narrative, insisting that Madigan simply made hiring recommendations.

"So, there's nothing really inappropriate about making job recommendations. But why was ComEd not monitoring their employees?" Manley asked during the hearing, alluding to recommended employees who did "little or no work" for the company, according the DPA.

At a news conference following the hearing, Welch claimed Glockner's testimony affirmed that Madigan had no personal knowledge of the nine-year bribery scheme.

When asked whether he would support a subpoena of Madigan, Welch said the request is premature.

"I think there's more work that needs to be done. We're going to take it under advisement. Just like we've done with every other request they've made. We are going to look into it," Welch said.

State Senate Gop
Outlines Ethics
Package

Measures aim to enhance enforcement of existing laws, ensure lawmakers work 'in public interest'

by Jerry Nowicki Capitol News Illinois

Illinois Senate Republicans unveiled a package of ethics proposals Thursday which they say is targeted to stop the type of corruption that has led to the indictment of four legislative Democrats in recent months.

"Today we're introducing a legislative package that targets corruption by focusing on two distinct areas: enhancing the state's ability to enforce the laws we already have on the books; and ensuring that legislators are serving the public interest," state Sen. John Curran, R-Downers Grove, said during a virtual news conference.

To enhance the ability to enforce laws, Republicans are backing bills to: allow the state attorney general to impanel a statewide grand jury to investigate, indict and prosecute bribery and misconduct by members of the General Assembly; provide state's attorneys with wiretap authority; and grant the legislative inspector general the ability to investigate members of the General Assembly without first receiving approval from the Legislative Ethics Commission, while changing the composition of the commission to make its members part of the general public, rather than legislators.

Curran said inaction on corruption in Illinois breeds distrust in the system as headlines of indictments continue to mount.

Four Democrats from the General Assembly have been indicted since the start of 2019, including former Sens. Martin Sandoval of Chicago and Terry Link of Indian Creek, as well as former Rep. Luis Arroyo of Chicago. While the charges against Sandoval and Arroyo relate to their official business as lawmakers, Link's does not, as he pleaded guilty to a tax evasion charge related to underreporting income.

State Sen. Tom Cullerton, D-Villa Park, was indicted on ghost payrolling charges but has pleaded not guilty and continues to serve.

Meanwhile, Commonwealth Edison, the state's largest utility, admitted to corruptly seeking influence in the General Assembly and agreed to pay a $200 million fine. In the court document known as a Deferred Prosecution Agreement, in which ComEd made the admission, it was also noted that one of the main officials they sought to influence was House Speaker Michael Madigan, a Chicago Democrat.

While Madigan has denied any wrongdoing and has not been charged, ComEd claimed in > the court document that it handed out jobs and contracts to close Madigan associates in an effort to curry his favor for legislation that benefitted the company.

> Sen. Jil Tracy, R-Quincy, said it's "understandable that people are skeptical of their government" given the recent headlines, which is why lawmakers are also taking aim at bills to ensure lawmakers "are working in the public interest."

> Other proposed measures would ban legislators from lobbying other branches of state government or units of local govern ment for compensation – an activity that would have prevented Arroyo from receiving payment for lobbying the city of Chicago while he was a sitting legislator.

"This would stop a legislator from being able to leverage his or her position as an elected official at one level of government to influence action at another level for his or her financial benefit," Tracy said.

Another bill backed by the GOP senators creates a revolving door prohibition preventing lawmakers from becoming lobbyists for one year after leaving office, or until the end of the current term.

Other proposed measures prohibit a legislator from leaving office and continuing to use their campaign fund to support lobbying activities and require further reporting on statements of economic Interests to enhance the disclosure of potential conflicts of interest.

The GOP senators faced questioning as to whether they would be able to work with Democrats, and they noted similarities in ethics proposals backed by the majority party.

On Aug. 13, the same day news broke that Link was indicted, General Assembly Democrats hosted a virtual news conference to unveil reforms calling for similar lobbying restrictions for current and retiring lawmakers.

On Thursday, John Patterson, a spokesman for Senate President Don Harmon, D-Oak Park, issued a statement saying, "They've got some interesting ideas. We look forward to them working with us to pass and enact meaningful ethics reform for the people of Illinois."

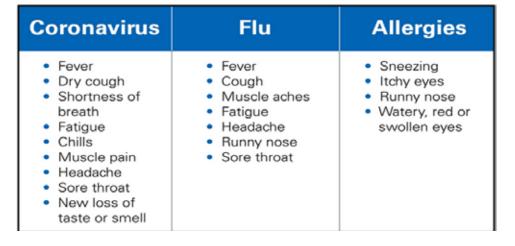

Sen. Dale Righter, R-Mattoon, said he believes Democrats will be receptive because many of them are fed up as well.

"The supermajority is filled with good people who, I'm sure, the overwhelming majority of them are just as embarrassed by what they hear and read and see going on with their colleagues as we all are," Righter said. "The question is whether or not we can help pull them away from a system that has developed ...of systemic corruption, to pull them away from that. And the best way to do that is to for us to jointly, on a bipartisan basis, embrace these proposals."

Sen. Dan McConchie, R-Hawthorn Woods, said the narrow focus of the bills introduced Thursday was intentional.

"This entire package is focusing on us cleaning up our own house," he said of the General Assembly. "We believe that there are plenty of members on the other side of the aisle that want to do that."

As to whether the measures will be heard in the fall veto session, which is scheduled Nov. 17-19 and Dec. 1-3, Righter said "that's completely up to the Democrats." Harmon's spokesperson did not indicate whether the measures would be considered in the veto session.

Illinois Supreme Court Affirms Stepparent Rights In Civil Unions

Ruling clarifies that civil unions are equal to marriages 'in all respects'

by Peter Hancock Capitol News Illinois

The Illinois Supreme Court ruled Thursday that parents involved in civil unions have the same stepparenting rights as married individuals and that those rights continue even after the death of their spouse.

"This is a great decision, not only for the LGBTQ community but for all couples who decided to enter into a civil union," John Knight of the ACLU of Illinois said in a statement after the ruling. "The court clearly recognized that when the Illinois General Assembly passed the Civil Union Act, it intended to extend to civil union partners all the rights and responsibilities of marriage, including those of a stepparent."

The case actually did not involve an LGBTQ couple. It involved a woman, Kris Fulkerson, whose partner, Matthew Sharpe, died in 2017. Sharpe had a child – identified in court documents only as A.S. Sharpe – with his ex-wife, Crystal Westmoreland, before their 2013 divorce.

Sharpe and Westmoreland shared equal parenting time, but A.S. continued to live with Sharpe at their home in the Metro East with Fulkerson and her three children. After Sharpe died, Westmoreland took custody of A.S. and stopped allowing the child to visit Fulkerson or her other children.

Fulkerson filed a petition seeking visitation rights and an allocation of parental responsibilities. Westmoreland then asked the circuit court to certify two questions for an appellate court to decide: Whether a party to a civil union has standing to request visitation with her deceased partner's child as a stepparent, and whether that party has standing to request parental responsibilities.

Under Illinois law, the court noted, stepparents are allowed to seek visitation rights and parental responsibilities when their spouse dies. The court also noted that only three other classes of nonparents are allowed to seek visitation rights grandparents, great-grandparents and siblings.

The question before the court, however, was whether someone who is not married to the birth parent, but instead is part of a civil union, qualifies as a stepparent.

In 2011, the General Assembly passed the Illinois Religious Freedom Protection and Civil Union Act, known more simply as the Civil Union Act, as a way to confer most of the rights

Court legalizing same-sex marriage nationwide.

An appeals court panel answered "no" to both of those questions, but in a unanimous opinion Thursday, the Illinois Supreme Court reversed those decisions.

"We find that, in enacting the Civil Union Act, the General Assembly intended to create an alternative to marriage that was equal in all respects," Justice Rita Garman wrote for the court. "This intent was not limited to partners' rights as to each other."

"I am so pleased by the court's ruling. This was not just a court case. It was about my family," Fulkerson said in a statement issued through the ACLU. "When my partner and I entered into a civil union seven years ago, we understood that our civil union would give us all the same rights and responsibilities as a marriage. I became a stepparent to a child who became an important part of my life and the life of my entire family. We forged a strong relationship as a family, one that did not end – legally or emotionally – at the death of my partner."

The case now goes back to circuit court for a judge to decide how much visitation and parental responsibility Fulkerson will have.

Madigan Declines to Testify to Investigating Committee

House panel investigating House speaker to meet Tuesday

by Peter Hancock Capitol News Illinois

House Speaker Michael Madigan said Friday that he will not testify before the House Special Investigating Committee that is probing his role in a bribery scheme involving utility giant Commonwealth Edison, and it's not likely that most of the other potential witnesses that Republicans want to hear from will testify either.

In a two-and-a-half-page letter to the committee, Madigan called the committee "a political stunt" being orchestrated by House Republican Leader Jim Durkin, of Western Springs, and said the ongoing federal criminal investigation, "is more important than Mr. Durkin's political theatrics."

"For the record, I am not exercising my Fifth Amendment rights by not appearing before the committee," Madigan wrote. "As I have said before, I have done nothing wrong."

Madigan, a Chicago Democrat and the longest serving state legislative speaker in U.S. history, > was implicated in the bribery scheme in July when officials with ComEd entered a deferred prosecution agreement with the U.S. Attorney's office in which they admitted that over a period of years, they awarded jobs and contracts to close associates of Madigan in order to curry his favor for legislation that benefitted the company.

Madigan has not been charged, and the deferred prosecution agreement did not explicitly state that he had personally requested the favors or had direct knowledge of them at the time. He is referred to only as "Public Official A," although the agreement makes clear the public official is the speaker of the Illinois House.

Republicans have filed a charge under House rules accusing him of "conduct unbecoming to a legislator or which constitutes a breach of public trust." During the committee's first meeting Sept. 10, GOP members introduced a list of witnesses they wanted to testify voluntarily. The list included Madigan along with several past and current employees of ComEd.

The committee's next scheduled meeting is Tuesday, Sept. 29. In a letter to committee Chairman Rep. Emanuel "Chris" Welch on Thursday, Durkin indicated that one ComEd representative had agreed to testify and that he and the GOP team's attorney, Ron Safer, a former federal prosecutor, would lead the questioning.

Friday was the deadline for people on the proposed witness list to indicate whether they would testify. Durkin did not indicate which ComEd official had agreed to appear Tuesday. His spokeswoman referred questions about witness responses to Welch, who released letters late Friday from five of the proposed witnesses, all of whom said they were declining the invitation.

Those included Madigan, former ComEd CEO Anne Pramaggiore, and former ComEd lobbyists Michael McClain, a close confident of Madigan's; Michael R. Zalewski, a former Chicago alderman; and Jay Doherty. That leaves only Fidel Marquez, who was recently indicted in the bribery scheme, and John Hooker as potential witnesses. The list also includes unnamed "current or former employees of Commonwealth

The committee has authority to issue subpoenas for witnesses and documents, but Republicans so far have not indicated they intend to pursue that

The job of the Special Investigating Committee is to determine whether there is sufficient evidence to support the proposed charge. That would require a majority vote on the six-member disciplinary panel, which is evenly divided between Republicans and Democrats.

If the committee votes to approve the charge, a second, 12-member disciplinary committee would be formed to conduct what amounts to a trial. If that panel finds Madigan guilty, it would send a resolution to the full House, along with recommended disciplinary action that could range from reprimand or censure to expulsion from the House.

More Than 2 Million Mail-In Ballots Requested In Illinois

Number accounts for nearly a quarter of registered voters

by Jerry Nowicki Capitol News Illinois

More than 2 million Illinois voters have requested vote-by-mail ballots and more than 26,000 such ballots have already been returned, according to the Illinois State Board of Elections.

That means about a quarter of the state's registered voters had requested vote-by-mail ballots as of Wednesday afternoon.

ISBE reported that 2,077,594 ballots were requested, with 26,872 returned and 55,751 persons having voted early.

The number continues to grow as public health guidance advises against congregating in indoor places due to concerns about the spread of COVID-19. Earlier this year, state lawmakers passed a law requiring election authorities to send applications for vote-by-mail ballots to registered voters who voted in recent elections.

Applications must be sent back to the election authority to receive a mail-in ballot. Many of the applications have already been distributed to voters, and vote-by-mail and early voting periods began last week.

Once the ballot is received, it must be sent back to the election authority to be counted. While the new law for the 2020 election allows an election authority to install drop boxes for the return of ballots, a spokesperson said only 54 of the state's 108 election jurisdictions have such a drop box.

Those who have requested mail ballots but change their minds and would like to vote in person instead have avenues to do so, according to ISBE spokesperson Matt Dietrich, who said there are safeguards in place to ensure no double voting occurs.

A voter who received a mail ballot but wishes to cast a ballot in person must surrender the ballot at an early voting location or polling place on Election Day and will be given a regular ballot.

A voter who does not surrender the ballot must cast a provisional ballot. Provisional ballots are not counted until all the mail ballots have been processed and it is assured that the voter's ballot is not among them.

According to Dietrich, if someone has requested but not yet received their mail ballot and wants to vote in person, the voter can sign an affidavit at the polling place or early voting location attesting that they have not received a mail ballot. The voter will then be given a regular

"This happens most frequently with voters who request their mail ballot very late in the process and don't receive it as of Election Day, though a voter can do this anytime as long as they haven't received the ballot," he said.

Voters using this method are instructed to discard the mail ballot if it arrives, but if they do sign and return it for voting, they're committing vote fraud and are subject to Class 3 felony charges, Dietrich said.

Gov. JB Pritzker was asked at a virtual conference news Wednesday if he had any concerns about rhetoric from President Donald Trump in Tuesday night's presidential debate in which continued Trump to raise questions about the validity of a November election that has already smashed mail-in voting records in many states.

Pritzker said he would feel "confident in the system we have" if he were voting anywhere in the state, noting that the new law has made the process "safer and easier."

"We've had vote-by-mail in Illinois for some number of years," he said. "And so there's, I think, a reasonable high confidence level of people who have done it have done so successfully. We have not had situations of voter fraud in Illinois caused by vote by mail."

All mail-in ballot requests must be received by Oct. 29 ahead of the Nov. 3 election, but officials recommend submitting requests earlier to ensure a ballot is received by Election Day.

Returned ballots must be postmarked by Nov. 3 and received by the local election office by Nov. 17 in order to be counted.

The Illinois Constitution establishes a structure for government and laws. There are three ways to initiate change to the Illinois Constitution: (1) a constitutional convention may propose changes to any part; (2) the General Assembly may propose changes to any part; or (3) a petition initiative may propose amendments limited to structural and procedural subjects contained in the Legislative Article. The people of Illinois must approve any changes to the Constitution before they become effective. The purpose of this document is to inform you of proposed changes to the Illinois Constitution and provide you with a brief explanation and a summary of the arguments in favor of and in opposition to the proposed amendment. Proposed changes in the existing constitutional amendment are indicated by underscoring all new matter and by crossing with a line all matter which is to be deleted.

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SECTION 3 OF ARTICLE IX OF THE ILLINOIS CONSTITUTION ARTICLE IX – REVENUE

SECTION 3. LIMITATIONS ON INCOME TAXATION

(a) The General Assembly shall provide by law for the rate or rates of any tax on or measured by income imposed by the State. A tax on or measured by income shall be at a non-graduated rate. At any one time there may be no more than one such tax imposed by the State for State purposes on individuals and one such tax so imposed on corporations. In any such tax imposed upon corporations the highest rate shall not exceed the highest rate imposed on individuals by more than a ratio of 8 to 5.

(b) Laws imposing taxes on or measured by income may adopt by reference provisions of the laws and regulations of the United States, as they then exist or thereafter may be changed, for the purpose of arriving at the amount of income upon which the tax is imposed.

EXPLANATION

The proposed amendment grants the State authority to impose higher income tax rates on higher income levels, which is how the federal government and a majority of other states do it. The amendment would remove the portion of the Revenue Article of the Illinois Constitution that is sometimes referred to as the "flat tax," that requires all taxes on income to be at the same rate. The amendment does not itself change tax rates. It gives the State the ability to impose higher tax rates on those with higher income levels and lower tax rates on those with middle or lower income levels. You are asked to decide whether the proposed amendment should become a part of the Illinois Constitution.

ARGUMENTS IN FAVOR OF THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

Illinois' current tax system unfairly benefits millionaires and billionaires and this amendment will set things right for middle-class and working people. Currently, it is unfair that billionaires pay the same

Voting "yes" on the amendment means that the State will enact a new tax structure where only those making above $250,000 a year will see their taxes go up. This amendment is simply upgrading Illinois' old tax system to a graduated system which is how the federal government and the majority of other states do it.

Approval of this amendment would enact a fair system that allows the state to tax wealthy people at higher rates and lower income people at lower rates, replacing Illinois' current unfair tax system, in which wealthy people pay the exact same tax rate as lower and middle income people.

Illinois' current tax system unfairly benefits millionaires and billionaires, and approval of this amendment will set things right for the middle class and working people.

This amendment will help small business owners by creating a stable economic environment for their businesses to thrive.

While others try to mislead you, under the current tax system in Illinois, policymakers already have the authority to set any tax rate and to change tax rates at their will. The current system forces policymakers to charge the same tax rate to everyone, regardless of how much money they make. If this amendment passes, the State will have the ability to tax higher income earners at a different rate. In fact, upon passage of this Amendment, a new tax structure will go into effect where 97% of taxpayers will pay the same or less, while only those making more than $250,000 a year will see a tax

This amendment does not tax retirement income.

This Amendment Would Make Illinois' Tax System Fair.

The Federal Government and Most States Use the Graduated Tax System Proposed in this Amendment, Not the Unfair System Currently Used in Illinois.

Illinois is among a minority of states that do not utilize graduated tax rates because the Illinois Constitution requires a "flat tax" that penalizes middle-class and working people and benefits higher income individuals.

A majority of states and the federal government already use the kind of graduated income tax system proposed in this amendment to ensure that wealthy people pay their fair share of taxes. Nearby states including Iowa, Minnesota, Missouri, Ohio, and Wisconsin are among the majority of states that have graduated tax systems.

Illinois' Current Income Tax System Relies on Taxes from Middle and Lower Income Earners, While a Graduated System Would Lower that Burden and Fund Critical Programs such as Education and Human Services.

While some states have fair tax rates in which the highest income earners pay the highest tax rate, Illinois' "flat tax" rate continues to rely unfairly on taxes from middle and lower income earners. Under Illinois' "flat tax" structure, a nurse making $50,000 per year pays the same tax rate as an executive making $4 million per year. A graduated tax rate would have the executive pay more. Because of the way our current tax system is set up, the bottom fifth of Illinois taxpayers (those making below $21,800) contribute 14.4% of their income to state and local taxes, compared to 7.4% for the top 1 percent of Illinois taxpayers. If this Amendment passes, the State has already enacted a new graduated tax structure where 97% of taxpayers will pay the same or less.

Under the new tax structure, only the top 3% of Illinois income earners would pay more in income taxes. Everyone who makes $250,000 or less a year would pay the same or less.

Over 95% of small businesses earn $250,000 or less a year in profits, and their owners will not see a tax increase under the new tax structure.

This change will generate additional revenue each year that can help address Illinois' budget deficit and fund critical programs, including the State's education system, public safety, and social services like mental health and substance abuse treatment and domestic violence shelters.

After the COVID-19 Pandemic, We Need to Do All We Can to Help the Economy and Middle-Class and Working People.

Working people and essential workers like nurses, first responders, and grocery store clerks should not pay the same tax rate as the wealthy. Nurses making $50,000 a year should not pay the same tax rate as an executive making $4,000,000 a year.

Having wealthy people pay more would reduce the burden on working families. This is money that middle and lower income people need for housing, groceries, medicine, and essentials.

When the wealthiest people pay more, middle and lower income earners can pay less while the State funds critical services that our essential workers rely on.

ARGUMENTS AGAINST THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT

- The Amendment gives the Legislature power to increase taxes on any group of taxpayers with no limits and no accountability and without any requirement to use the additional revenue to fund essential needs such as healthcare, education, or public safety.
- Taxes and spending are out of control. The Legislature should not be allowed to keep raising taxes until they get their spending under control. 3) In the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, now is the worst possible time for a massive tax increase.

The Amendment gives the Legislature power to increase taxes on any group of taxpayers with no limits and no accountability and without any requirement to use the additional revenue to fund essential needs such as healthcare, education, or public safety.

The proposed amendment would give the Legislature unlimited new authority to increase income tax rates on any group of taxpayers at will, including low-income and middle-income families and small business owners. There would be no limit on the number of tax brackets that could be created and no limit on how high tax rates could be increased on individual taxpayers. In addition, this proposed change will pave the way for a tax on retirement income.

Nothing in the amendment requires the Legislature to do anything to control spending. Nor does it require funds to be spent on essential needs such as healthcare, education, or public safety. It would simply give the Legislature a blank check to spend billions of dollars however they want, with no accountability.

Taxes and spending are out of control. The Legislature should not be allowed to keep raising taxes until they get their spending under control.

Illinois already has some of the highest property taxes and sales taxes in the nation. And the Legislature has increased Illinois income tax rates twice in the past decade to try to deal with the out-of-

Even before the COVID-19 pandemic, our state had a huge and growing multi-billion-dollar budget deficit, and the unfunded pension liability skyrocketed to over $137 billion. That's because the Legislature has continued to increase state spending instead of eliminating government waste, corruption, and abuse.

Because they refuse to control spending or pass major reforms, the Legislature will just continue to raise taxes on everyone in Illinois, and middle-class families will be their next target. In the wake of the COVID-19 pandemic, now is the worst possible time for a massive tax increase.

The COVID-19 pandemic caused layoffs, unemployment, bankruptcies, and closures. As small businesses and local employers struggle to rebuild, this is the worst possible time to impose huge new tax increases. Even before the COVID-19 crisis, many residents and businesses were leaving the state because of the high tax burden. If the Amendment passes, it would be the last straw for thousands of small businesses, causing more jobs to leave the state, and making Illinois lose out on investments to rebuild our economy. This would mean fewer jobs and less opportunity for Illinois families.
